Cities & Immigrants
with Prof. Faranak Miraftab

Summer 2019 / Online
June 10 – August 1
Dept. of Urban and Regional Planning

This course introduces students to the experiences of foreign-born residents living in U.S. cities, towns, and rural communities. We examine the local policies that both welcome and integrate immigrants as well as those policies that police and restrict immigrants. By the end of the course, students will better understand the reasons for anti-immigrant backlash, the economic opportunities of immigration, and ways in which immigrants claim their right to the city.
