

ACSP Scholarships for Student Travel to the ACSP 2009 Conference

Deadline: May 1, 2009

These scholarships provide financial support to students to attend the 2009 ACSP Conference, including conference registration and $250 in cash to defray travel expenses. Applicants must be enrolled graduate students at an ACSP full member school during the 2008-2009 year.

Preference will be given to applicants: 1) nearing completion of the doctoral degree, 2) presenting an accepted paper at the conference, and 3) for whom conference attendance would otherwise not be possible.

Application must be made by submission of the special application form found on the ACSP awards webpage. The deadline for submission of the application form is May 1, 2009; late, or incomplete applications will not be considered for an award.
